NFR-2	Security	The process of ensuring the safety and optimum management control of stored goods. It is of central importance for optimum warehouse management because the performance of a company stands or falls with the safety and efficiency of a warehouse.
NFR-3	Reliability	Relying on manual inventory counts to know what you have will only guarantee high inefficiencies and a loss of customers.
NFR-4	Performance	Creating systems to log products, receive them into inventory, track changes when sales occur, manage the flow of goods from purchasing to final sale and check stock counts.
NFR-5	Availability	Whether a specific item is available for customer orders. Additional information provided by retailers may include the quantity available.
NFR-6	Scalability	They should use an automated inventory management system for inventory tracking. This will make your business much more scalable so that you can continue building consistent growth and take advantage of increased sales.
